Extending the Hand of Fellowship, Welcome and Announcements

Litany Prayer

Eternal One, always loving and forgiving, always compassionate and affirming, we bring our prayers to you. We know, too, that you always listen with great care. In your way and in your time, you respond to us! Help us to be ready, open, and always attentive.

Eternal One, in these days, our lives seem to be so full. We feel like we have way too much to do. Settle us down, help us to center upon you and your will. Calm our spirits and refresh our energies.

When we are sorrowful and troubled,
send your comforting Spirit.

When we are lonely and isolated,
send your encouraging Spirit.

When we feel tension and dis-ease,
send your peaceful Spirit.

When we are lost and perplexed,
send your guiding Spirit.

When we are sick and ill,
send your healing Spirit.

When we are confused and filled with doubt,
send your faithful Spirit.

When we are worn out and hassled,
send your calming Spirit.

When we are at war or in anger,
send your loving Spirit.

In all the seasons of our lives, your Spirit is always available to us and for us.

Teach us that all we need to do is simply ask you, great God, for your Spirit to come upon and over us. Now, Spirit, now come! Amen.

John 21:1-19

1Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Tiberias.^[a] It happened this way: 2Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. 3"I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them, and they said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. 4Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. 5He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?" "No," they answered. 6He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish. 7Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. 8The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.^[b] 9When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread. 10Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." 11Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 13, but even with so many the net was not torn. 12Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. 13Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. 14This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead. 15When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs." 16Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep." 17The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." 18Jesus said, "Feed my sheep. I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." 19Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, "Follow me!"

Acts 9:1-20

1Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest 2and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. 3As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. 4He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" 5"Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied. 6"Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do." 7The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone. 8Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. 9For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything. 10In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, "Ananias!" "Yes, Lord," he answered. 11The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. 12In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight." 13"Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. 14And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name." 15But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel. 16I will show him how much he must suffer for my name." 17Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here—has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, 19and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Revelation 5:11-14

11Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders. 12In a loud voice they sang: "Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!" 13Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing: "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!" 14The four living creatures said, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Christian Educator's Summit Begins following our Worship Service Today

Rev. Goodman is calling a meeting of everyone that is any way involved in the leadership of the teaching ministries of our church. All these persons should have received an invitation and material to read prior to the meeting. A light lunch will be provided by the Ewilda Whitenack UMW Circle prior to the meeting.

On the Avenue

Reverend Goodman to Attend Natural Church Development Coaches Training Session Next Weekend

The Annual Conference has asked the pastor to take training to be a Natural Church Development Coach. This will allow him to assist other churches in the way that our church is being assisted with the NCD Process. He will be leaving town Thursday afternoon and returning late on Sunday evening.

Former Pastor, Don Nation to Preach at Church Next Sunday

In Reverend Goodman's absence next Sunday, a former pastor, and our current district superintendent, the Reverend Don Nation, will deliver the morning message. Please give him a warm Virginia Avenue welcome.

Graduating Senior Banquet to Be Held May 9th

The church will honor graduating seniors with a banquet on Wednesday night May 9th at 6:00 p.m. in the church fellowship hall. Everyone is encourage to attend. We will be having a cookout: hamburgers, hot dogs, baked beans, potato salad, chips, green salad and the requisite condiments and desserts. We ask that you donate money to the church ahead of time for this meal so that we can purchase the necessary items. If you can't donate ahead time, then you can donate at the meal. Any excess funds will be given to our Fair Share.

Fifth Sunday Offering

Many children, due to circumstances not of their own making, have never felt love, joy, appreciation, or success. We can give thanks that Holston Home exists to help children find fulfillment. Please be generous with your FIFTH SUNDAY gift to Holston Home on Sunday April 29.

Native American Ministries Offering will be taken today.

Natural Church Development Process Is Underway

The first step in the NCD process is on the horizon. On Wednesday night May 2nd, Reverend Goodman will meet with 30 of the leaders of the church at Ryan's for a meal at 6:00 p.m. and then ask them to complete an extensive questionnaire that will give us a snapshot understanding of our church on eight Church Quality Characteristics.

The persons chosen for this meeting have been elected by the Charge Conference or represent a particular group within the church such as the UM Men, Women and Youth. Please be in prayer for these people and ask that God would undergird the NCD Process as we seek to discover how to best carry out our mission and ministry in this
